Every year, the NORTHWESTERN FINANCIAL REVIEW, a regional banking magazine, selects a handful of bankers across the nation who meet certain criteria: under age 45, have at least 10 years at a bank, and who have made substantial contributions to their bank, industry and community. We are honored to announce that Mark Heinemann has been chosen as a 2015 RISING STAR! Congratulations to Mark and deep gratitude for his leadership in our bank and our community!
